The many faces of the colored Jones polynomial

Roland van der Veen

University of California, Berkeley

Abstract. In this talk we will discuss an elementary definition of the colored Jones polynomial for knots and show how it relates to many other aspects of knot theory. In particular we will give a survey of conjectures on the colored Jones polynomial including the volume conjecture and the AJ conjecture and report on recent progress.