The half-twisted splice operation on reduced knot projections

Ayaka Shimizu

Hiroshima University

Abstract. We show that any nontrivial reduced knot projection can be obtained from a trefoil projection by a finite sequence of half-twisted splice operations and their inverses without becoming a reducible projection. This is a joint work with Noboru Ito.