

Surface bracket polynomials of twisted links

Naoko Kamada

Nagoya City University

Abstract. Bourgoin defined the notion of a twisted link. Twisted links are equivalent to abstract links on non-orientable surfaces. Dye and Kauffman defined the surface bracket polynomials of virtual links. In this talk I introduced those of twisted links. We discuss a relationship between the multivariable invariant and the surface bracket polynomials of twisted links.