

Regular-equivalence of 2-knot diagrams and sphere eversions

Kokoro Tanaka

Tokyo Gakugei University

Abstract. A surface-knot diagram is said to be regular if it has no branch points. In this talk, we construct two regular diagrams of a 2-knot such that any sequence of Roseman moves between them involves branch points. This is a joint work with Masamichi Takase (Seikei University).