Higher genus tangles

Philippe Humbert

University of Strasbourg

Abstract. This talk will be about tangles (knots, braids...) lying in a cylinder over a closed surface of arbitrary genus. I will first introduce some kind of planar diagrams and Reidemeister-like moves for these objects. This diagrammatic point of view will then lead to a universal property stated in the language of braided categories.